

Bethany Rainey, Lead Teacher

Bethany graduated from Mount St. Mary's University with a Bachelor of Science in Education and concentration in Religious Education. Bethany has worked as an intern and substitute teacher in the Frederick County School District. She also worked as an assistant teacher in an early education center. In addition, Bethany volunteered on a crisis intervention hotline where she worked to provide support, design safety plans, and adapt resources for survivors of sexual violence.

Bethany moved to California in 2018 to join the Children of the Immaculate Heart team as the lead teacher at the minor's home for young girls.
