

Edward Kariithi, Board Member

Edward was born and raised in Kenya and moved to San Diego to attend college. After he met his lovely wife, he decided to stay in the United States. Edward has held Controller and CFO positions at Liberty Street financial group, Nightingale Health Services, Inc., and United Financial Group. He has provided Support to various companies, including audit support and financial processes consultation for the Diocese of San Diego, amongst other firms.

Edward has also worked as an accountant at various levels in companies including CBIZ (CBZ) and Infosonics (IFON). He is currently a partner in two businesses, Global Coffee Trading and Njoga Coffee, Inc., which he founded. The companies import trade in coffee and coffee futures as well as regular coffee products with the finest pure Arabica coffee from his family's farms in Kenya. He serves on the finance council of St. Anne's parish in San Diego and is a former board member of the Goretti Group, a San Diego-based Catholic movement focused on youth spirituality.

Edward and his wife are blessed with four children and live in San Marcos, California.
