

Vanessa Jimenez, Office Manager

Vanessa was raised in a military family traveling throughout southern California. After community college, she earned her Minor in Radio TV & Film and B.A. in Theatre Arts at California State University, Fullerton in 2014. Two years later she worked as the Chapter Development Coordinator with The Goretti Group Inc. while earning her M.B.A. in Film Producing at John Paul the Great Catholic University. One of her final thesis projects was an 8-minute documentary about Children of the Immaculate Heart.

Throughout her college years she still remains a freelance photographer and producer in young adult ministry prompting Catholic events and community outreach programs. She currently holds an internship in Hollywood as a script editor. Her long term goals are to direct stories of true life experiences in the film industry producing authentic masculinity and femininity in Romantic Comedies.
